DKAdvisors is now

ProVision

What Has Changed...

Our new name reflects the ongoing evolution of the company. Since our inception, we have stood apart from other CPA firms with our revolutionary concepts of tax strategy and tax coaching.

In reality, this proactive approach to tax was always part of a bigger picture. That bigger picture is wealth creation.

Fundamentally, we are more than tax strategists. We are wealth strategists.

Tax is one of three key elements. Smart planning for wealth creation is another. And, because many of our clients are business owners, the third element is business consulting.

Our vision is to provide you with everything you need to achieve total financial freedom — faster than you thought possible.

And What Has Not...

There is no change in your team of advisors, no change in the company ownership, and no change in our passion to deliver exceptional personal service.

Come Visit Us Online... And Receive A Free Gift

To celebrate our new name, we have launched a brand new web site packed with information about wealth creation and protection.

Visit us today at ProVisionWealth.com

You will find our site brings a whole new clarity to the ProVision triad of wealth strategy, tax services and business consulting. We talk about how these concepts apply to clients in various industries and circumstances. And we help guide you to the resources best suited to your needs.

Most exciting of all, we are proud to launch our new education resource, Wealth Strategy U. Read all about this breakthrough service, and the free gift we are offering on the web site right now.

Wealth Strategy U is another example of our commitment to build your financial strength through the sharing and application of cutting-edge knowledge.

Party Time

As a client or special friend of the company, you are one of the first to know about our change of name and new web site. Early in 2007 we will launch ProVision to the world, with a major public relations campaign.

To mark the occasion, there will be a Grand Opening party at our headquarters here in Phoenix, Arizona. We very much hope you will join us for this festive celebration. So please watch your emails in the coming weeks for the date and details.

Meanwhile... A Big Thank You

Tom Wheelwright and the entire team would like to thank you for your participation in our growth from DKAdvisors to ProVision. We look forward to an exciting future together, creating even faster ways to build your wealth and achieve true financial freedom for each and every client.
